

Summer Reading Program Funding

Many of our summer reading programs are supported in part by Federal Library Services and Technology Act funds, awarded to the New York State Library by the Federal Institute of Museum and Library Services. Visit the state library online at <http://www.nysl.nysed.gov/>

Recent changes at JLPL

The library has recently made some changes in its collection, in order to serve you better. New adult non-fiction titles are now shelved on the second floor behind the reference desk. Reference books have been inter-filed with the non-fiction for easier access. Graphic novels also have a new home, right next to Young Adult non-fiction, also on the second floor. Library staff are happy to help you find what you need!

Digital Downloads

Audiobooks and e-books are available through RCLS from <http://efiles.rcls.org>. Many of these books are now compatible with Ipods and e-reader devices. Visit waldenlibrary.org's Digital Downloads page or ask library staff for more information.

Used Book Donations

The Walden Library accepts donations of gently used books. We do not accept textbooks, Reader's Digest, or badly damaged books. Please do not leave donations in the book drop, or on the doorstep. We can only accept donations during library hours.
